Tel Aviv University, Israel

Tel Aviv University invites you to apply to the Zuckerman STEM Leadership Program, which attracts high-achieving postdoctoral scholars from premier universities in the United States to do research in STEM areas in Israel.

DURATION, FUNDING AND ELIGIBILITY

- Zuckerman Postdoctoral Scholarships are for up to two years.
- Zuckerman Postdoctoral Scholars receive a scholarship of $52,000 per academic year for up to two years. Of this amount, $50,000 is provided by the Zuckerman STEM Leadership Program ($5,600 for research and travel to professional conferences plus $44,400 for living expenses [$3,700 per month]). An additional $2,000 in research funds is directed to scholars through their supervisors at their Israeli universities.
- Candidates may apply to STEM departments in more than one university.
- Candidates must be citizens of the United States or Canada or have a documented status that allows them to study and work in the US.
- Candidates must hold a Ph.D. degree from a premier university, or if still studying for a Ph.D., must submit their Ph.D. thesis before October 1, 2020.
- Candidates who began their postdoctoral training at the host institution after October 1, 2019, or who will arrive to begin their training no later than October 1, 2020, may still apply for the upcoming deadline.
- Candidates must obtain consent from a potential hosting supervisor at the Israeli university/universities the candidate is applying to.
